Your county managed care advocate may also be able to help. Contact your county human services office and ask to speak to the county managed care advocate.

If you disagree with this decision, you have two options: You can (1) file a health plan appeal or (2) request a state fair hearing:

- You can choose to appeal to Medica Behavioral Health or request a state fair hearing. You may do both at the same time. You do not have to finish one process before using the other.
- You must follow the timelines for appeals and state fair hearings.
- Tell why you disagree with the decision. If you need a decision quickly, state that in your appeal or request for a state fair hearing.
- If you decide to appeal it will NOT affect your eligibility for medical benefits.
- There is no cost to you for filing an appeal or a state fair hearing.
- You can have a relative, friend, advocate, provider or lawyer help with your appeal or state fair hearing. Anyone may appeal on your behalf with your written consent. You may present your evidence and facts about the case in person, by telephone or in writing.
- Your health care provider may appeal a service authorization decision without your consent.

REQUEST A STATE FAIR HEARING

Write: Appeals Office or Fax: 651-431-7523

Minnesota Department of Human Services

PO Box 64941

St. Paul MN 55164-0941

- You must request a state fair hearing in writing within 30 days of the date of this notice. You have up to 90 days if you have a good reason for being late.
- A state fair hearing is a meeting held by a human services judge with you and Medica Behavioral Health. Your hearing will be held by telephone unless you ask for a face to face meeting.
- The process generally takes between 30 and 90 days unless you request an expedited state fair hearing for an urgently needed medical service.
- If your hearing is about a service that was denied because it was not "medically necessary," you may ask for a review by a medical expert. There is no cost to you.

Can my health care services continue during an appeal or state fair hearing?: If we are stopping or reducing your service you can ask to keep getting the service when you file an appeal or state fair hearing. The request to continue a service must be made within 10 days after the date of this notice or before the service is stopped, whichever is later. The treating provider must agree the service should continue. The service can continue until the appeal or state fair hearing is resolved. If you lose the appeal or state fair hearing, you may be billed for the service.

Medical records: You may ask to see documents considered by us during the appeal or state fair hearing process. You may request this information any time before or during the appeal or state fair hearing. You may need to put your request in writing. There is no cost to you.
